BK PROOF OF CLAIMS FILING +

The Bankrupt Debt Services Proof of Claim Filing process provides creditors and collection agencies an avenue to automate their bankruptcy recovery process without reselling any accounts. This solution provides record management and receipt handling to improve management of the bankruptcy claims process with the federal courts which provides accountability for each account record as well as its status.

Additional details include:

- Ensures that you meet all Proof of Claim deadlines.
- Recover more dollars from your bankrupt accounts.
- Internal resources can re-focus on other areas of your organization because of the automated process.
- Automatically verify that the case has not been dismissed, transferred, discharged or closed prior to claim filing.
- You will have complete accountability of your bankruptcy proof of claim filing, transfer, withdrawal, and amendment processes.
- Provides a safe alternative to an industry concern of reselling accounts.
